

SHELTER PREVENTION INITIATIVE

AN ANIMAL WELFARE GRANT FROM OLIVER'S FOUNDATION

First things first, who are we?

Oliver's Foundation is a non-profit dedicated to keeping pets with their families.

We provide funding for local rescues to aid in emptying Metro Detroit's animal shelters through education, outreach and advocacy programs. Our primary mission is to keep animals safe in homes and off the streets. We created the Shelter Prevention Initiative to offer funding for effective prevention programs in Metro Detroit.

Ok, so why sponsor the Shelter Prevention Initiative (SPI)?

The great work rescues and shelters do for homeless animals is obvious: saving them from dangerous situations, taking care of their medical and emotional needs, and of course finding them forever homes.

However, if we can reduce the number of pets ending up in shelters, we can make their jobs that much easier. We want to ensure pets are in caring homes with loving families as opposed to overburdening shelters.

By awarding grants to them specifically earmarked for shelter prevention, they are able to fund initiatives that meet criteria to achieve our goal. We will be supporting the many practices that are proven to keep pets with their families; such as educating current and potential pet owners on what to expect when they get a pet, establishing TNR practices, training and microchipping, among others.

Become a champion for Metro Detroit animals by supporting this initiative!
